- The department or program area with the winning dessert will be announced on the stage at 3 p.m.

Dessert Silent Auction Rules

DCTC employees form teams by department or program area to prepare desserts of any and all types—from cakes to cookies to pies to whatever the imagination can bake up. Team members must prepare the desserts without assistance from outside experts. Store-bought or professionally prepared desserts are unpalatable, so to speak.

The idea is to create an irresistible confectionary masterpiece that is entered as an auction item to the delight of Septemberfest visitors, who will then bid briskly to obtain the dessert of their dreams.

Bidding begins at 12 noon and ends at 2 p.m. The program area or department with the dessert that brings in the most money will win a catered lunch from Rascals in Apple Valley for up to 20 people. Administrators may submit desserts as auction items, but are not eligible to win the grand prize.

All proceeds from the Dessert Silent Auction will be used to fund scholarships for DCTC students.
